INTRODUCING SCOTLAND'S COMPETITION

Do your students have the culinary skills and creativity to take on Scotland's top young chefs?

Brought to you by the organisers of the highly respected Irish Student Chef of the Year Competition, we're excited to be back in Scotland for another year to unearth the next generation of young Scottish chef talent from the best catering colleges across the country.

More than just a competition, the Knorr Professional Student Chef of the Year helps support the future generation of chefs, providing a vital platform for young talent to showcase their creativity, build confidence, and gain the real-world experience that will shape their careers.

Knorr Professional's mission is to support and inspire students to reach their full potential. Shortlisted students will work in teams (a Head Chef and Assistant) to showcase their creativity and talent to our multi-award winning Judges chef James Brown, chef Gary Maclean and chef Martin Ross. In a live final, students will have the opportunity to impress our judging team through their delivery of a two-course meal and the completion of a skills test.

WHY SHOULD YOU ENTER?

Prizes and medals will be awarded to first, second and third place students, with the overall winner, their lecturer and Assistant receiving an all-expenses paid trip to Italy that will both educate and inspire.

-  Trip abroad (for team), plus culinary gift voucher and trophy (for Head Chef).
-  Culinary gift voucher (for Head Chef).
-  Culinary gift voucher (for Head Chef).
-  Plus – Culinary gift voucher for the skills test winner.

WHO ARE WE?

Unilever Away From Home is one of the world's leading foodservice businesses. We work with customers including caterers, restaurateurs, and major hotel and fast-food chains to create food solutions that help grow their business.

Founded in 1838, Knorr Professional is proud to have been by the side of culinary professionals all over the world. We've spent over 180 years bringing together the perfect ingredients that transform simple dishes into something special. With our extensive range of market-leading Bouillons and a shared passion for joy-filled food, we provide professional chefs at all levels with the building blocks to create memorable menus.

HOW DOES YOUR COLLEGE ENTER?

To enter, lecturers should share the 2025 competition brief and application details found within this pack with students to review and create their application response.

Application responses should be reviewed by their lecturers prior to submission and sent by the lecturer to ScottishSCOTY@omne.agency. Our judges will select a shortlist of up to eight teams for our live final.

Student teams will comprise of the Head Chef (student making application) and a student Assistant (of lecturer's choice). Each student team will be accompanied on the day by their lecturer. Students must be 17+ years* to enter.

Each college may enter as many student teams as they would like. A maximum of three teams per college will be permitted through to the finals.

*Please see terms and conditions for full details.

INTRODUCING OUR JUDGES

James Brown

Chef James Brown brings over 22 years of culinary expertise to the table, championing fresh, sustainable ingredients and bold flavours. From his early beginnings near the Cornish coast to his roles at renowned establishments like Polpetto, he has a passion for nurturing new talent. As a judge, James combines his extensive experience with a commitment to ethical cooking, inspiring the next generation of chefs to create delicious, nutritious dishes.

Gary Maclean

Born in Glasgow, multi-award-winning chef Gary Maclean runs his own highly honoured seafood restaurant in Edinburgh. Gary also won MasterChef the Professionals 2016 and is Scotland's first National Chef. Gary is now thrilled to be fronting the Knorr Professional Scottish Student Chef of the Year Competition as both an ambassador and head judge.

Martin Ross

We're excited to welcome Bidfood Scotland's food development chef, Martin Ross. Bidfood Scotland operates from five strategically located depots across Scotland. They work with numerous Scottish suppliers, providing a range of quality, locally sourced products and ingredients, and in total over 10,000 products, including store cupboard essentials, fresh meat, chilled and frozen food. The range is complimented by catering supplies, chemicals and non-food, giving all chefs a complete one stop shop service.

THE 2025 COMPETITION BRIEF

THE THEME: Feel Good Food

This year's theme is all about creating vibrant, nutrient-rich dishes that nourish the body, mind, and soul—without sacrificing flavour.

We are looking for students to craft menus that showcase the powerful relationship between nutrition and wellbeing, using high-quality, locally sourced, and seasonal ingredients. Your dishes should highlight how food can be both delicious and restorative, with a focus on sustainability, plant-based options, and innovative food practices. The main course must include Knorr Professional Bouillon as a key ingredient, enhancing flavour. Be mindful of food waste by using by-products creatively and ensuring every ingredient is utilised to its full potential.

Your challenge is to deliver food that is not only good for the body but also leaves diners feeling uplifted and satisfied.

THE ASK

For this competition, we are challenging students to create a two-course menu that highlights the powerful connection between nutrition and wellbeing through dishes that fuel the body and mind, leaving guests feeling nourished, energised and uplifted.

Your menu must consist of a main course and a dessert and showcase your approach to not wasting taste.

While we do not want to restrict creativity, our judges will be paying careful attention to how each of the menus have been thought through.

COMPULSORY INGREDIENTS

1. The main course must feature a Knorr Professional Bouillon product.

2. The main course must include fish as a protein - this must be locally sourced and either flat or round. The whole fish is filleted by the assistant during the second skills test.

3. The dessert must incorporate unrefined sugars to achieve a healthier result.

SKILLS TEST REQUIREMENTS

During the live finals, the team's Assistant will have a chance to highlight their talents through two skills test requirements.

Assistant Skills Test 1:

During the Mise en Place, vegetables that will be used in the main competition must be cut and presented to the judges:

- 1 x 30 g of Brunoise: A cube cut, small dice of 3mm-5mm in size, equal sides (faces) and uniform in shape.
- 1 x 30g of Julienne: A strip cut, matchstick sized, 3mm-5mm in width and breadth, and 5cm-7cm in length, equal and uniform in shape.
- 1 x Torné/Turned: A barrel-shaped cut, with either 5 or 7 equal sides, tapering down to 2 distinct ends, minimum of four pieces.

Each vegetable needs to be presented on a tray after the one hour set up time and then used in the cooking time.

The judges will mark the cuts and then return to the teams so they can be used. They may be used as a whole piece or another format such as a purée.

Assistant Skills Test 2:

A round or flat whole fish must be filleted and all parts must be displayed for the judges to assess. The fish will then be used in your team's main course.

THE 2025 COMPETITION BRIEF

  - This donation must be used exclusively for the purpose of covering the expenses related to the competition (including, but not limited to ingredients, cooking supplies, and travel to/from competition).
  - The funds will be released once the nominee has responded to the Promoter's notification and the college has provided valid payment details.
  - This donation is made on a goodwill basis only.
  - Under no circumstances will the Promoter be enforced to make further donations to the recipients.
17. The Promoter is not liable for any expenses incurred by the colleges/institutes related to participating in the competition. Participating colleges/ institutes are responsible for arranging and funding their travel to/ from the competition final as well as any other expenses related to participating in the competition by way of the donation. Any shortfall must be covered by the colleges/institutes.
18. No applications from agents, third-parties, organised groups or applications automatically generated by a computer will be accepted. Any incomplete or corrupted entries will not be accepted. Entries will only be accepted if they comply with all entry instructions herein.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

19. Each entry:
- must be suitable for display and publication online and should not be obscene or indecent (including but not limited to nudity, pornography or profanity), it must not contain defamatory statements or words or symbols that are offensive either generally or to individuals of a certain race, ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation or socioeconomic group. Entries must not include threats to any person, place, business or group, must not invade privacy or other rights of any person, firm or entity, and must not in any other way violate applicable laws and regulations or network standards.
  - must not contain or reference any third-party trademarks or logos unless such inclusion is merely incidental and is not unduly prominent and as long as it is included with due cause and in such a way that it does not take unfair advantage of any third-party trademarks; and
  - must be the entrant's own work and must not contain any copyright protected works (other than as owned by the entrant).
20. If you submit an entry that includes material the rights of which are owned by a third party, including intellectual property rights such as copyright and trademarks, you will be responsible for any legal action that party may take against you.
21. Entrants shall indemnify and hold the Promoter and their respective affiliates, directors, agents, or other partners ("the Indemnitees") harmless from any claims, actions, proceedings, costs (including reasonable legal fees) and expenses brought or asserted by a third-party against any of the Indemnitees arising as a result of the Promoter's use of the entrant's submission including but not limited to any breach of third-party intellectual property rights.
22. By participating in this competition, you agree to release, discharge and hold us harmless from any and all injuries, liability, losses and damages of any kind resulting from your participation in this promotion (save that nothing shall limit our liability for fraud, or for death or personal injury caused by our negligence).
23. By submitting your entry, you grant us a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, royalty-free, sub-licensable and transferable licence to use, reproduce, distribute, and make derivative works of your entry in any media and through any media channel. No responsibility is accepted for entries lost, damaged or delayed as a result of any network, computer hardware or software failure of any kind.

THE COMPETITION FINAL

24. Eight nominees and their teams will compete for the title of Knorr Scottish Student Chef of the Year on the 26th of March 2025, City of Glasgow College, 190 Cathedral St, Glasgow, G4 0RF. The competition runs from 10am-6pm.
25. All competing teams will receive a chef's jacket. All participants must wear the chef jackets during all competition-related activities and events as specified by the Promoter. Please provide your jacket size in the entry form on or before the closing date for entries: Friday 14th February 2024 at 23:59. The Promoter will not accept responsibility for entries arriving later than this date.
26. Each team will be required to cook a 2-course meal using recipes from their submission forms.
27. Judging will take place once two dishes have been completed. Each dish will be reviewed by our expert judging panel under the supervision of an independent judge. The panel will evaluate the dishes on the day of the competition final and announce the winner as well as second, third and skill test prize winners. The panel will judge the dishes based on the following criteria:
- Interpretation of themes
  - Chefmanship
  - Standard of dishes produced (presentation, taste and composition)
  - Teamwork; and
  - Waste prevention

In the event of a dispute, the decision of the Promoter is final.

28. There will be a total of four winners, with the following prizes allocated:
- First Place: A trip to Italy (for team), a culinary gift voucher for the head student Chef valued at £200 (two hundred Great British Pounds), and the title of Knorr's Student Chef of the Year.
  - Second Place: A culinary gift voucher valued at £150 (one hundred and fifty Great British Pounds)
  - Third Place: A culinary gift voucher valued at £100 (one hundred Great British Pounds)
  - Skill Test Winner: A culinary gift voucher valued at £50 (fifty Great British Pounds)
29. Winning Team Prize Details and Conditions:
- The Winning Team, consisting of the Student Chef, Student Assistant and College Lecturer will win:
    - Minimum 3-day trip to Italy including culinary experiences planned by the Promoter.
    - 3 x Return economy flights to and from one of the Scottish airports to Italy.
    - Minimum stay of 2 nights in a hotel chosen by the promoter, with one room per team member (Student Chef, Assistant and Lecturer).
    - Specific details of the hotel stay, including whether the stay will include full board, half board or breakfast only, will be confirmed and communicated to the Winning Team once arrangements have been finalised.
    - Transfers to/from the airport and accommodation, and to/from the accommodations and planned experiences.
  - NOTICE: the Winning Team must be available to attend the experience between April to June 2025. The exact date and details of the experience will be provided by the Promoter to the winning team at least 4 weeks in advance of the Experience date. Prize winners must be available to travel on the days specified by the Promoter, or the prize will be forfeited.
  - Travel dates are set by the Promoter. Flight schedules are subject to change without notice. The Promoter is not liable for any missed events of opportunities or expenses incurred as a consequence of flight cancellation/delay or ground transportation delay. Name changes to the flight once confirmed are not permitted.
  - Flight extras are not included in the prize (flight extras include, but are not limited to, on-board meals and drinks).
  - The Winning Team must inform the Promoter of any wheelchair or any similar access needs.
  - Prizes are non-exchangeable, non-transferable, non-refundable and there is no cash alternative. Flights, accommodation and experiences must be used only by the winning team. Entrants must not re-sell or otherwise re-distribute any tickets they receive.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

- g. Should one of the team members be unable to attend the trip on dates proposed by the Promoter, but the other two members are available, the trip will be offered to the available members of the team. There will be no refund or prize substitution to the unavailable team member or the winning team as a whole. Should more than 2 team members be unavailable to attend the trip on the proposed dates, the Promoter shall use reasonable endeavours to provide alternative dates. However, should the trip be impossible or impracticable for the Promoter to rearrange, the Promoter has a right to revoke the prize in full.
- h. The Winning Team must travel together, including on the same flight and stay in the same accommodation and possess all required travel documents, including any nationality that does not trigger Visa requirements to enter Italy (If applicable) and valid passports. No compensation or alternative travel plans will be arranged should the winner(s) and/or their guest(s) miss their outbound or return flights or fail to meet any check in requirements for any reason. These costs will be the sole responsibility and expense of the winner(s) and their guest(s). Frequent flyer points will not form part of the prize.
- i. The Promoter will not be responsible for replacement for any lost or stolen flight tickets or accommodation key cards/room keys once they are in the winners' possession. Prize winners must comply with all applicable terms and conditions and conduct terms of third parties, including the prohibition on the re-sale and transfer of tickets/accommodation.
- j. A valid credit or debit card will be required to check in to your room and will be used to guarantee any incidentals such as in-room calls or services.
- k. Prize elements, including culinary experiences, air travel provided, and hotel will be determined by the Promoter in its absolute discretion. All travel is subject to availability at all times and may depend on select class tickets with airlines or specific room category availability with an accommodation partner.
- l. The winning team must have a valid travel insurance for the period of their travel.
- m. It is the winning team's responsibility to organise transport to/from the Scottish Airport.
- n. Unless expenses are expressly stated in these Terms and Conditions to be a part of the prize, all other expenses incurred by the winning team in preparation for or during the trip, are the responsibility of the winners, including but not limited to all other meals, transfers, insurance, spending money, incidentals, mini-bar, laundry, room service, telephone calls and all other ancillary costs are not included.
30. The culinary gift vouchers are subject to third-party terms and conditions. These include but are not limited to:
- The vouchers are redeemable at participating stores only.
  - The participating stores will be confirmed and communicated to the winners when the vouchers are awarded.
  - The vouchers are valid until the expiry date specified on the voucher. After this date, the vouchers will expire and cannot be redeemed.
  - The winners must pay any remaining balance if the value of their purchase exceeds the voucher amount.
  - The winners will not receive any refund if the full value of the voucher is not used.
31. In the event that an element of any prize is cancelled or postponed for any reason, the Promoter reserves the right to substitute the prize and/or any element of the prize for an alternative of equal or greater value.
32. Winner Notification and Prize Acceptance: The winners will be announced on the day of the competition final.
- The announcement will take place at the competition venue once the competition concludes and will be communicated in front of all participants.
  - Winners must confirm their acceptance of the prize on the day of the announcement. Failure to confirm acceptance may result in forfeiture of the prize, and the Promoter reserves the right to offer the prize to another participant at their discretion.
  - Further details regarding prize arrangements (travel for first-place team) will be communicated to the winner with 28 working days of acceptance of the prize. In the unlikely event that a winner has not received communication to arrange their Prize, the winner must inform the Promoter by emailing ScottishSCOTY@omne.agency. If the winner does not do so, the Promoter reserves the right at its sole discretion to not reissue the Prize.
  - The Promoter will not be held liable for any failure by winners to claim their prize or provide required details within the specified timeframe.
33. The Promoter will not be liable for any failure to comply with its obligations or any delay in performing its obligations within these terms and conditions if an act, omission, event or circumstance occurs caused by (but not limited to) global or regional health crises, weather conditions, fire, flood, strike, hurricane, industrial dispute, war, terrorist activity, hostilities, political unrest, riots, civil commotion, epidemic, pandemic, famine, plague or other natural calamities and acts of God, or any other circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the Promoter.
34. Details of the winning team (name and county) may be made available on request to those writing to OMNE, No. 6 Doolittle Yard, Froghall Road, Amptill, Bedford, MK45 2NW, within ten weeks after the closing date, enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope. The winners have the right to object to disclosure of their details and they can notify the Promoter if they do not wish for this information to be published, by responding within 14 calendar days to the email notifying them that they have won a prize.
35. All finalists may be filmed, photographed, and interviewed by the Promoter or on our behalf following the winners' announcement. The nominees attending the competition give us a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, royalty-free, sub-licensable and transferable licence to use, reproduce, distribute and make derivative works of such footage, photographs, and testimonials in any media and through any media channel.
36. Local and national PR support for the winning college/institute, including assistance with drafting a press release and sending the same to the local, national and trade publications for inclusion in editorial features, as well as liaising with the media to answer questions and queries for a period of three months after the winner's announcement has been made. Editorial coverage is at the sole discretion of the publication and by no means guaranteed as part of the PR support.
37. Nominees may be required to participate in publicity arising from this promotion.
38. By entering the promotion, all entrants will be deemed to have accepted and be bound by the rules and consent to the transfer of their personal data to the Data Controller for the purposes of the administration of this promotion and any other purposes to which the entrant has consented.
- The personal data will be processed in accordance with the Data Controller's Privacy Policy, which is available at: http://www.unileverprivacypolicy.com/en\_gb/policy.aspx. All entry instructions form part of the rules.
39. These terms and conditions and any issues or disputes which may arise out of or in connection with these terms and conditions (whether such disputes or issues are contractual or non-contractual in nature, such as claims in tort, for breach of statute or regulation or otherwise) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law. Entrants hereby irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts to settle any such dispute or issues.
